AMERICAN SOLDIERS ONLY SIXTY FEET FROM THE HUNS

With the American Army in France, February 2.—(Associated Press Cable) — American troops in the trenches on the French front at one place are only 60 feet from the German line.

In another place a mile of ground separates the opposing positions. At this point there are a number of ponds and neither side desires to occupy the water-covered ground.

HUNS CHARGE PLOT TO STIR REVOLUTION

German Press Insists Anglo-American Plot to Promote Revolution in Central Empire was Formed in Washington.

Effort was to be Made to Incite Workers to Strike, Is Claim.

(By Associated Press Cable)

London, February 2. — Berlin dispatches detailing an alleged Anglo-American plot to foment revolutions in the Central Powers are published by Cologne newspapers, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Amsterdam.

In Washington, on New Year's day, it is said, that 250,000 marks was subscribed for this purpose. The revolutions were to be organized in Germany, Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria. The organization was to be under the leadership of Senator Stone, Earl Reading and Viscount Northcliffe.

It was to have had branches in neutral capitals surrounding Germany and German speaking neutrals were to be sent into Germany in an effort to incite the workers in munitions plants to strike.

DECLARED ABSURD.

By Associated Press Dispatch. Washington, February 2. — "Perfectly absurd," was how Senator Stone, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee characterized the report that he was concerned in an organization to foment strikes in Germany.

MAY KISS IT GO' BYE

By Associated Press Dispatch. Washington, February 2. — The Fuel Administration is willing to revoke the heatless Monday orders after next week, in favor of railroad embargoes, if State Fuel Administrators who meet here Monday believe the closing already has served its purpose.

A sharp decrease in coal production yesterday in West Virginia and parts of Pennsylvania and Ohio, because of coal car shortage, was reported to the railroad administration today.

CHILDREN TO BE ENROLLED

By Associated Press Dispatch. Washington, February 2. — Plans have been made and soon will be in operation for the direction of the patriotic activities of all the school children of the United States into one channel—the junior membership of the American Red Cross.

Beginning February 12th, Lincoln's birthday, and continuing until Washington's birthday enrollment work will be carried on to bring all the children in the schools of the country into the Red Cross Junior membership.

Soldiers Are Attacked by Mob and Serious Results Take Place.

Arrest of Socialist Member of Reichstag Greatly Resented.

Strikers Given Until Monday to Return to Work.

(Associated Press Cable)

London, February 2. — Serious rioting on Thursday in Spandau where important German war industries are located, is reported in German newspapers, a dispatch from Amsterdam says.

Soldiers were attacked by a mob. Four thousand men employed at the harbor works are on the strike, the dispatch says.

Seven Berlin factories have been placed under martial law and strikers ordered to resume work by Monday. It is announced their failure to return will be punished, according to military discipline.

Drastic measures invoked by the German government to end the strike has failed to bring the movement to a close. Only semi-official statements are permitted to leave Germany and these make no claim that the strike has ended.

They report but little gain in the movement except in the Berlin and Altona districts, where war material is made.

The military has dispersed the strikers' meetings. Another version of the recent rioting in Berlin has it that the trouble started when the police tried to disperse a crowd that was crying for peace and bread.

One of the leaflets circulated in Berlin which helped start the strike caused the government's expressed desire for peace "a mask."

Berlin claims the workers have resumed work in Hamburg.

ARREST OF LEADER SPREADS UNREST

(Associated Press Cable)

Amsterdam, February 2. — Berlin papers received here say that William Dittman, socialist member of the Reichstag was arrested when he tried to address a crowd in a Berlin suburb.

According to a dispatch from London an Amsterdam message says that a national demonstration is being organized in Germany as a protest against Dittman's arrest.

Hugo Haase, a socialist deputy appealed to Chancellor Von Hertling to secure his release, but the Chancellor said he was powerless as Berlin was entirely in the hands of the military.

RIOTS ADMITTED!

(By Associated Press Cable)

Amsterdam, February 2. — Isolated and insignificant excesses in Berlin yesterday are reported in a semi-official statement from the German capital.

According to accounts in the newspaper the disturbances assumed extensive check. Nearly all parts of Berlin were involved.

U-Boat Is Going to Bring England to Her Knees Again, Says Dutch Newspaper.

Pessimism in Berlin Over Russo-German Peace Conference.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

The Americans in France are having their share of artillery bombardment and rifle exchanges.

A Dutch newspaper makes the disclosure that German military and financial leaders expect the U-boat to bring England to her knees and end the war in six months.

However, the sinking of merchantmen has dropped below the level maintained when the policy of unlimited destruction went into effect, February 1st, 1917.

Pessimism is said to exist in Berlin over the outcome of the Russo-German peace negotiations.

DESPERADO IS BLOWN TO BITS

By Associated Press Dispatch.

El Paso, Texas, February 2. — After shooting and killing four persons, Felipe Alvarez, a Mexican, was blown to pieces by dynamite which was thrown into a house in the Mexican quarter where he had taken refuge from the city and military police.

The Mexican killed the two children of Mrs. Trinidad Lucero, wounded her and then shot a policeman and deputy tax collector after he had barricaded himself in the house to which he fled after the shooting at the woman's home.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN IS COUNTED OUT BY THE GREAT REFEREE

Heart Trouble Lands Knock-out to Noted Pugilist at Home in Abington, Mass.

One of Most Picturesque Figures of Prize Ring and Man who Made Belt Worth Real Money.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Abington, Mass., February 2. — John L. Sullivan, formerly the heavy weight champion of the United States died at his home here today.

Sullivan was 59 years old. He was taken ill with heart trouble three weeks ago but his condition improved and he went to Boston yesterday. This morning he arose as usual and planned to go to the city but during the afternoon he had an attack of the old trouble from which he never rallied.

John Laurence Sullivan was one of the most picturesque characters in the history of prize-fighting. For more than ten years, from the time he defeated Paddy Ryan in 1882, in a bare knuckle fight under the London Prize Ring Rules, until he was defeated by James J. Corbett, in 1892, his personality and methods of fighting completely dominated sporting circles in the United States.

In the early days of his career, $1,000 a side was looked on as a great sum. He received only $53 for the fight that made him a national character in fistfights and won him the right to challenge Paddy Ryan for the championship.

His friends ranged all the way from the ordinary "fight fan" to many men of social and financial distinction in the United States, and it is said he was on chummy terms with the late King Edward VII of England.

He began his fighting career soon after he was seventeen, when as the "Boston Strong Boy" he took part in amateur boxing contests in several cities in Massachusetts, if Sullivan's customary procedure in his early youth could be called boxing.

After his nine round fight with Paddy Ryan, on the strip of greensward on the Gulf of Mexico, the word "knockout" was manufactured by Billy Madden, Sullivan's trainer, to describe the effect of his blows when properly delivered.

His hardest fight was with Jake Kilrain. It was fought near New Orleans and lasted for seventy-five rounds. That was the last championship contest in the United States to be fought with bare knuckles, under the old rules.

Sullivan said himself that he made two millions in the fighting business and that he spent one million of it in buying drinks for himself and his host of admirers.

He had knocked out two hundred men, of one sort or another in his fighting career, and finally he said that in a saloon in Terre Haute, Ind., in 1905, he gave the "Black Bottle" his greatest enemy, the knockout wallop. On the occasion of the decision with regard to the "Black Bottle" he said:

"If I take another drink, I hope I choke, so help me God." He never took another, but kept up his fight, for temperance by lecturing occasionally on the evils of drink for those who have athletic ambitions.

He was born in Boston, October 15, 1858 and passed the later years of life on a farm which he owned near West Abington, Mass.

GEN. MARCH IS TO BE CHIEF OF U. S. ARMY

Gen. Bliss to Remain as U. S. Representative of the Supreme War Council.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, February 2. — Major General Peyton March is slated to become acting chief of staff of the army, if General Pershing can spare him from his present duties as chief of artillery of the Expeditionary Forces.

No reply has been received from General Pershing. The selection of General March means that Major General Bliss, chief of staff, is to remain permanently in Europe as the American military representative at the supreme war council.

It is expected that General March will undertake his new duties soon.

Permanent assignment of General Bliss to the war council may result in a request to Congress for authority to appoint an additional general.

As General March will be in fact head of the army, it is thought probable he will be given both the rank of Chief-of-Staff later, General Bliss being continued in similar rank but relieved as Chief-of-Staff to permit him to devote his time exclusively to his work abroad.

AMONG WOMEN WAR WORKERS

The Woman's Relief Corps effected an organization as a Red Cross unit at the home of Mrs. Martin Hamm, Friday afternoon.

The W. R. C. has been doing splendid war relief work and have contributed largely to N. L. W. S. boxes forwarded, but only recently decided to form a Red Cross unit. That it will be a unit doing capable work goes without saying.

Mrs. A. J. Thompson, president of the W. R. C., was made chairman and the next meeting will be held at her home on Broadway next Friday afternoon at two o'clock.

All the women of the organization who would like to work in this unit are cordially invited. Fifteen were present at the organization.

Red Cross Needs Old Linen.

The Red Cross urges that anyone having old pieces of linen or sheetings send them to the Red Cross workshop.

They are much needed for casings for ambulance pillows.

Any and all white soft linen or cotton materials can be used.

D. A. R. RED CROSS UNIT

Enthusiasm in Red Cross work is reaching the flood tide among the patriotic Daughters.

Friday D. A. R. day at the work shop, saw the completion of 98 garments, only two short of the 100, for which they pledged, regardless of the big handicap of the holiday season.

Many of the Daughters had been working with other Units before the D. A. R. Unit was organized and while much in sympathy with the Daughters Unit, are not able to give to it as much time owing to their earlier plans.

TELLS STARTLING STORY TO BOARD

That he had been guilty of bootlegging and that he had made considerable money gambling, was the information given to the Local Draft Board a few days ago by a young man who wanted to prove that he was supporting his wife.

The young man is said to have told the draft board that he had won $42 from a young man of this city, playing "rotation pool," and that he had won snug sums in this city at similar "work."

The $42 won, the young man declared to the local board, had been obtained in one day.

Reports of other work of a similar nature convinced the Local Board that he was winning sufficient money to support his wife, but the nature of his "work" did not make a favorable impression, and the matter may be heard from later.

WILL SOON MOVE TO WILMINGTON

Will B. Rogers, of this city and Washington C. H., a member of the firm of Smith, Rogers & Smith, attorneys, has had his plans of moving his family to Wilmington thwarted by the continued severe weather.

"How could a fellow move this kind of weather?" was the question offered as an answer to one from this paper as to when he planned to move his family to Wilmington.

How, indeed, could a fellow move household goods, when moving one's self is next to impossible?

Mr. Rogers has bought a home in Wilmington and will move here from Washington C. H., in the spring, or at least by the time the school year is ended. Meanwhile, he is following the plan of making daily trips to and from Wilmington on the train.—Wilmington News.

EIGHT CARS AND WARMER WEATHER

Eight cars of "black diamonds" reached town Friday. No coal had been received in the two preceding days, and the shipments arrived in time to prevent more suffering.

The weather man promises warmer weather, and actual suffering is expected to be eliminated by the rise in temperature and the arrival of more coal.

A local manufacturer sent a representative to one of the coal dealers that had the good fortune to receive several cars of coal, attempting to buy some of his supply. The representative was told that all the coal he had was for those that were in dire need of the fuel and that he could have none of the supply.

BUSH NOW PLAYING WITH OLD JYNX

JOE BUSH

"Bullet Joe" Bush, formerly boxman of Connie Mack's Athletics, is now a member of the Boston Red Sox. "Bullet Joe," in the five years he worked for Mack, only was able to best the Red Sox combinations three times, and on one of these occasions he was an added starter. Against his three victories over the Red Sox there show up sixteen defeats, fourteen of these coming in succession. No wonder Joe is tickled to be a member of the only team he never could lick consistently.

THRIFT TALK BRINGS INSTANT RESULTS

Hon. C. A. Reid, member of Fayette Co. War Work Council in an interesting half-hour talk before high school student body during the chapel period Friday afternoon emphasized very strongly the importance of thrift in winning the war. Especially did he dwell on the importance of small savings, those that are the result of abstaining from candy, picture shows and other amusements that are of low cost, but which decrease the purchasing power of one so as to be unable to contribute his share to the country's war fund.

Following Mr. Reid's speech, cards were passed around on which the students wrote their subscriptions for thrift and war savings stamps. Mr. Reid's talk increased the amount of the subscriptions to a marked extent.

MANY REGISTRANTS PREPARE TO ENLIST

Rather than wait until they are sent to camp along with the other contingents in regular form, many of the men of Class One who passed the examination a few days ago are preparing to enlist in the branch of the service that most appeals to them, and within a few days a large number of them will be in some branch of the service, it is believed.

By enlisting at the present time the men can have their pick of the service, but if they wait until the time comes for induction into the service in their turn, they will be placed where the military officers believe they should be, and the majority will go into the infantry.

Beware of Spies.

Washington, Feb. 2.—Warning placards to beware of spies appeared in the council of national defense offices with a significant notification that watchmen "have all the powers of a sentry on post." "Don't talk about what you have done or are going to do," read the warning. "Enemy spies at home and abroad will draw you into arguments and attempt to entrap you into revealing information. Secrecy means safety."

HE SAW IT!

It did not require a very lengthy airing, Saturday morning, for the ground-hog to see his shadow, and if he had not scurried back for another "six weeks of winter" after the first peek at the apparition caused by the sun beating down upon him, he could have sunned himself throughout the day.

FUNERAL SERVICES MRS. ANNE DEANE

Rev. Father Fogarty conducted the High Requiem Mass over all that was mortal of Mrs. Anna Deane at St. Colman's church, Saturday morning at nine o'clock.

The church was crowded with friends and many lovely flowers testified to the affection felt for the dead and the sympathy for the living.

Father Fogarty made a beautiful talk and the choir sang the mass with much feeling. Mr. Thomas Cullen sang "Lead Kindly Light;" Miss Margaret McDonald organist.

The burial was made in St. Colman's cemetery; the pallbearers being Messrs. Charles and Paul Holloran, of Cincinnati; Mr. Tom Holloran, of Frankfort, Ind.; Mr. John Holloran, of Cary, O.; Messrs. John Ducey and Martin Hillery of this city.

Relatives here from a distance besides those officiating as pallbearers were Mrs. Wm. Dalton, a niece, of Middletown; Mrs. Ella Holloran, Mrs. Mary Dempsey, Miss Theresa Coughlin, of Columbus; Mr. James Holloran, of Toledo.

Among the quantity of flowers were a basket of lilies and sweet peas, and spray of carnations, from the Dahl-Campbell Co.; basket spray carnations from the Eagles; basket sweet peas and roses, the neighbors.

WILLIAMSPORT IS EASILY DEFEATED

The "Y" basketball team went to Williamsport Friday and brought home a lopsided victory, winning from the Williamsport team 42 to 25.

In the last quarter, with only five minutes of play left, and with the "Y" leading 26 to 21, it looked as if the score would end with the visitors at the short side of it, but Williamsport caved in and allowed the local team to win 42 to 25.

The line-up for the "Y" was: H. Smith, lf; P. Smith, rf; Hays, c; O'Brien, lg; and Sollars, rg. The Williamsport line-up was: Smiley, lf; Samson, rf; W. Luellen, c, and Slight, lg, and Luellen, rg.

Homer Smith has been unanimously chosen captain of the "Y" team. Those who remember the team of two years ago that was under his piloting know that he will make a good captain.

Saturday night at 7:30 the Y. M. C. A. team plays the Springfield Questions.

EACH MONDAY IS THRIFT DAY

FUNERAL SERVICES ARE ANNOUNCED

Funeral services for Mrs. Charles Boylen will be held Monday morning at 9:00 o'clock, from the St. Colman's church. Burial will be made in St. Colman's cemetery.

Poetry For Today

OUR DEAD.
 Go bury them slowly,
 By the beat of the drums
 Go bury them softly—
 They were our sons,
 Your sons and my sons—
 They were your own.
 First to be sacrificed—
 They died alone.

Place on them flowers,
 Those heroes so true.
 They died for their country—
 For me and for you.
 In honor we'll rest them,
 So beat softly the drums;
 They that were sacrificed—
 They were our sons.

More still shall follow—
 They are not all;
 Only the first ones
 Fated to fall.
 So beat the drums slowly,
 And soft be their bed;
 Your sons and my sons,
 Our honored dead.

WHAT YOU MAY LEARN FROM THE TRAINING CAMPS

It's tough to have to "pile out" and go to work after a couple of hours sleep, isn't it? All right then, why not go to sleep earlier and get your rest and it won't be so bad. You are only cheating yourself and your chances of getting to the office with only one eye open. The morning is the best time of the day and all brain workers do most of their work then. Ideas are easier and you can think more clearly. Many a boy in the army thought he was being horribly imposed upon at first, when he had to pile out at five-thirty. But now he doesn't mind it and feels better because he also goes to bed at regular hours. These men are forming habits that will continue when they get back from "Over There." You had better practice a few yourself before they beat you to the office some morning, with a clear eye and take your job away from you. H. C.

ANARCHISTS EXPECT HELP

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, February 2.—Alexander Berkman and Emma Goldman, anarchists, surrendered at the United States Marshal's office today in compliance with a federal court order found as a result of the decision of the United States Supreme Court affirming their conviction of the charge of conspiring to interfere with the operation of the selective service law.

Berkman before giving himself up said he had information that the Bolsheviks in Russia would demand of the United States government that he and Miss Goldman not be forced to serve prison terms in this country but he returned to Russia.

The women of St. Andrews Guild are rounding up plans for the Carnival ball to be held at the Eagles' hall next Friday night. Whelpley's orchestra has been secured and the expectation is to introduce attractive Carnival features that will entertain both dancers and spectators.

The minimum which has been placed on the tickets, even although it is a war benefit affair, will undoubtedly lead many to go as onlookers.

The clever carnival masks now in preparation promise rich entertainment for the guests and the orchestra will render popular and brilliant music which will furnish in itself a delightful concert.

The worthy purpose of the Carnival—to secure money for the postage of magazines for soldiers in France—is in itself a succulent inducement to interest people.

GOVERNOR NAMED HAS NO DOMAIN

(Associated Press Correspondence)
Amsterdam, January 15.—The German Emperor has appointed Privy Councillor Haber to be Governor of the German colony of New Guinea. The Cologne Volk Zeitung explains: "It may sound curious that a governor be appointed to a region which we have lost during the war, but the fact is thus clearly emphasized that Germany has no intention of renouncing her colonies."

WILL REBUILD THE COLUMBUS PIKE IN 1919

Concerted Move Is Launched and Assurances Are Given by the State Highway Commission that 22 Miles of Road May be Rebuilt Under State Aid Plan.

As a result of the concerted action of the Fayette, Madison and Pickaway county commissioners, and several prominent citizens in this and the other counties, the State Highway Commission has agreed to permit the rebuilding of the Columbus pike from this city to Harrisburg, a distance of 22 miles, and the necessary resolutions for the improvement will, it is expected, be adopted by the various county commissioner boards in the near future.

The decision to improve the road, which, when improved is expected to be one of the most used roads, if not the most used, in the county, came at a session of the three boards of commissioners with the State Highway Commissioner, a day or two ago.

When the request was presented, and the importance of connecting the portions of the road already rebuilt was made known, the agreement was quickly reached, and when the improvement is made there will be improved road from Sabina via this city entirely into Columbus.

Under the plans proposed there will be no grade crossings on the rebuilt road, the present grade crossings over the B. & O. to be eliminated by passing under the track.

While the necessary legislation will be passed by the commissioners in the near future, it is expected that lack of funds in the state treasury may prevent the work beginning until the spring of 1919.

Some 14 miles of the road are in Fayette county, and the remainder is almost equally divided between Pickaway and Madison counties.

The importance of such improvement has long been realized, and it will be hailed with pleasure in this county. The construction will be on a 50-50 basis, and the material to be used will be decided upon later.

FAYETTE COUNTY MEN ARE BROUGHT FACE TO FACE WITH THE REALITIES OF WAR

Annual Banquet of the Fayette County Fish and Game Protective Association Proves Memorable Event.

"You Must Place Everything Upon the Altar of Freedom and Whip the Germans to a Frazzle," Declares Speaker from War Zone.

Announcement Is Made that Record of Every Citizen in Fayette County Will be Kept During the War.

Greatest Patriotic Demonstration Since Stirring Scenes of the Spanish-American War.

Not since the stirring days of the Spanish-American war has such patriotism been displayed at a public gathering in Fayette county as at the memorable annual banquet of the Fayette County Fish and Game Protective Association at the Knights of Pythias dining hall Friday night, and attended by upward of 500 men representing all walks of life and every part of the county.

If anyone held the belief that patriotism was lacking or that Fayette county men have not lined up solidly behind the war, the belief was dispelled by the decisive approval given every patriotic utterance at the banquet, even when it was announced that the time has come when all must sacrifice and give unsparringly of their means in order that Old Glory may be carried to the city of Berlin.

At the door the reception committee took charge of each member as he arrived, and assisted him in finding a place for his hat and overcoat, after which the payment of dues was in order and a social half hour was enjoyed in the main lodge room.

Then came the call to the dining room, where the National Colors were used in profusion to add the necessary touch of patriotism. In addition to huge flags adorning the walls and spanning the space between the big columns, rows of silk flags added to the beauty of the attractively arranged tables.

The speakers and presiding officers occupied a table at the head of the dining room.

Scores of waiters were required to do the serving, and everything moved like clock-work, reflecting great credit up on the committeemen who had spent much time and effort in preparing for the event.

The banquet was strictly in accordance with the war-times program, and was not elaborate. It was thoroughly Hooverized so that there could be no room for criticism on elaborate feasting when all of the world is short of food. The committee in charge was disappointed at the last moment by failure of the oysters to arrive, so that other soup was necessary.

After the banquet Vice-President Howard Allen briefly introduced Hon. C. A. Reid as toastmaster, who made a short address, referring to the Hooverized banquet, and calling attention to the fact that the gathering was the most representative of Fayette county citizenship held since the war. He introduced Hon. J. D. Post.

We Must Whip Germany

Mr. Post delivering a short and forceful speech, declaring that he believed the only way the war is going to be won is to whip the 10,000,000 disciplined and seasoned Teutonic soldiers, and that while it is going to be a hard job and require much self-denial on the part of all citizens in general, that the job is going to be done to a queen's taste, and American troops will be the deciding army.

Flag is Above Party

"We must lay aside party prejudices—you must help win this war; there is no party now—the flag is above party; and if you don't stand by your government in every way, then you are a slacker!" exclaimed Mr. Post.

Outlines Local Work

Chairman M. S. Daugherty, of the Fayette County War Work Council was next introduced, and he outlined the work planned by the council, and in which every Fayette citizen must take part.

"The time is coming when we will want 500 of ever surplus dollar you have in order to help win this war," said Mr. Daugherty.

No One Can Escape

Mr. Daugherty declared that the immediate work is to take a census of every man, woman and child in Fayette county, and then a card-index will show just what every person does toward the war. Every dollar they invest in Red Cross, Liberty Bonds, Y. M. C. A. war work fund, Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps, will be recorded on each individual's card.

Fayette's quota of War Savings stamps is $435,000, or $36,000 per month during the present year, and 12 campaigns will be made on these alone during the year, Chairman Daugherty announced.

Rounds of applause frequently interrupted Mr. Daugherty, as had been the case when Mr. Reid and Mr. Post spoke, and when he declared: "We will tolerate no slackers on the Fayette County War Work Council!" a storm of applause greeted him. He said that he would make every self-denial necessary to shoulder his burden of the work.

Mr. Reid at the conclusion of Mr. Daugherty's address, declared that inasmuch as Mr. Daugherty was saying "come on!" to his soldiers, that everyone would "go over the top" with their leader.

Then came the main address of the evening, made by Rev. D. B. Evans, pastor of the First M. E. Church, of Athens, Ohio, who was in France when Pershing's first contingents arrived, and who made a thorough inspection of conditions in France and other points, going into the first line trenches and getting all of his information of first hand.

Rev. Evans is one of the government speakers, and bears the rank of Lieutenant. Every word he uttered was given most careful attention, and dozens of times he was halted by storms of applause such as rarely heard, showing that his host of listeners were with him, heart and soul in the serious business of winning the war.

Has Son "Over There"

Rev. Evans stated that has a son somewhere "over there" whom he had not had a word from since last August, and that another son had tried three times to enter the service and failed because of a broken arm. "I am proud of the fact that I have a beloved boy 'over there' doing his bit for Liberty—even though he may never return to me!" said Rev. Evans.

No speech made in this city since the war opened has made such a profound impression upon an audience, and ever man who heard knew that there was no attempt at exaggeration or deception, but what they were hearing was he plain unvarnished truth as the speaker told of his trip down to the very bring of the hell that is threatening the liberty civilization, and which must be defeated by the deciding weight of the United States.

The German Viewpoint

Mr. Evans said that Germany is making war because of three false views; that might makes right; that war is blessed of God and state above individual. That Germany had conceived the idea of world empire, and her program was complete even to all plans for subduing the United States.

Various impressive points in the long address of Mr. Evans were:

If German plans had not gone awry early in the war, we would now be paying tribute to Germany instead of investing in Liberty bonds, etc.

Germany's greatest blunder was when she attempted to dictate the sea policy of the United States.

That he would rather be in the trenches in Europe than anywhere this side of Heaven.

The word American is the password to anything France has.

The French show every courtesy to the American soldiers, and hail them as their saviors.

He found one French mother who had given 12 sons to the cause of France, all of them being killed.

The American soldier is the best fed man in Europe.

"I believe I once said d—n the Kaiser, and meant it.

The Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross are doing work so great that words cannot begin to tell of it. Give freely to both whenever you have an opportunity.

The French children run screaming from a German soldier, because they know what German frightfulness is, but they run to meet the Sammys and climb into their arms.

He spoke of nameless atrocities practiced on the civilians who fell into the path of the Hun beasts.

The soldiers in France asked him if America would be behind them when they went "over the top" and he assured them that every true American would do his part at home, regardless of sacrifice. He said the soldiers at the front told him that they wanted to be the men that their country would have them be and that while a great many of them would never see home and loved ones again, that they were willing to make the supreme sacrifice because of the glory of such a death.

"The Scots never take any prisoners—I don't blame them," said Mr. Evans after he had related how the German had nailed live Scotchmen to a building.

He related the story of a Canadian who, with a small party of other Canadians had caught a burly German soldier in the act of braining wounded and helpless Canadian soldiers, and had run the German through with his bayonet. "And I would have done the same thing" said the speaker.

"There is nothing too brutal for the German soldier, and the only good German there is, is a dead German," he declared.

France would have been defeated long ago if she had had roads like the average road in Fayette county.

In graphic terms Mr. Evans told of his visit to the front line trenches; to Rheims and the ruins of the great cathedral at that point; to witnessing a battle in the air, and of being under shell fire. At Verdun thousands of German skeletons still adorn the battle field, and words fail to picture the frightfulness of that struggle, he said.

Mr. Evans found no gaiety in France. "But I never heard a French man or woman indicate that they were weakening in the determination to win" he announced.

The speaker then described the crossing of the English channel, where great steel nets, lined with mines and destroyers, for a channel across the channel.

He related his experience in London on the night of the last Zeppelin raid, when bombs fell all around him, and in some places the explosions carved in the fronts of buildings a square in all directions.

The Zeppelins were four miles high and only two out of the eight or ten, ever got back to Germany, he announced.

"There is only one thing and that is to put everything upon the altar of Freedom, and whip the Germans to a Frazzle" was the way in which Mr. Evans summed up the situation as it applies to every American.

In concluding his address, Mr. Evans described a submarine attack on his boat, and how the torpedo missed the vessel by only a few feet, and how a vessel following was sunk and many aboard went down with it.

At the conclusion of the address all stood and applauded loud and long and before adjourning three rousing cheers were given for the men now in France and for the speaker.

Mr. Evans had a number of articles from the battlefields of France, including a German steel helmet and scores of official photographs. These were passed around and attracted wide attention. Each article was closely inspected by the hundreds of men present.

The affair was one of the most memorable meetings held in this city in a great many years.

JUDGE HIDE HEADS 'FOUR MINUTE MEN' IN FAYETTE COUNTY

Judge Joseph Hidy, of this city, has been appointed county chairman of the "Four Minute Men" for Fayette county, and will take up the work immediately. His appointment was made by State Chairman Harry Vail, of Cleveland.

The "Four Minute Men" is an organization which already has done much good toward bringing the American people to a realization of the fact that their country is at war, and that they must be guided accordingly and make necessary sacrifices until the hosts of Liberty triumph and the iron grip of the German Military machine is broken forever.

The "Four Minute Men" is: "A national organization of volunteer speakers for government presentation of topics of national importance to motion picture theater audiences."

It is authorized by the President and is working through the committee of public information, co-operating with the government departments for, publicity on subjects connected with the war.

The chief duties of Judge Hidy will be to obtain four-minute speakers who will go into the moving picture shows of the county at frequent intervals and for just four minutes between reels, talk to the audience on pertinent subjects pertaining to the war.

Judge Hidy is desirous of obtaining a number of persons who are willing to do this as part of their patriotic duty.

150 COMING 2 and 3-YEAR-OLD MULES

These mules were bought by my agents as weanlings by side of dams at various "Court days" in different parts of Kentucky, among the places being Harrodsburg, Carlisle, Williamstown, Georgetown, Cynthiana and Mt. Olivette.

They are typical Kentucky mules, being well boned, rugged and stylish. Will weigh when mature from 1,100 to 1,300 pounds, and have never had any colt diseases. They have always had the run of my bluegrass pastures together with ample barn room located thereon. In addition to grasses they have had grain as required, and at present are receiving about $50.00 worth of hay and grain per day.

Taken altogether they are a very promising lot of youngsters, but they must be taught to do their "bit" for the world's democracy; and I am sure, at any price, with decent handling, they will more than pay their board and expenses. I would rather "break" five mules than one horse colt. Remember that mules are good to eat, good for leather and good for fertilizer, and will do an equal amount of work with a horse on half the feed and attention. MUST be worked every day to do well.

If you have an odd mule bring it along. You match and price and I will "give or take." Here is the place to buy matches that will always be matches. There are places on the farm for motors, but these mules will work ANY PLACE. Persons in this section about to take the "Farm Motor Fever" should, by all means, visit those with experience. How do you get on without at least one pair of mules? Come and see the mules or phone Exchange, Washington C. H., Ohio, Automatic phone 12255. Individual Bell 317-R1. Always at home except on Sundays.

WILMINGTON WINS IN NIP AND TUCK GAME LAST NIGHT

Washington High, Greatly Handicapped, Renders Good Account of Herself, But the Visitors Finally Snatch Victory from Defeat, 21 to 22—Juniors Win an Easy One.

The Wilmington high school basketball team snatched victory from defeat in a hotly contested game with the Washington high school team Friday night, winning 22 to 21.

The game was a see-saw from the start. Wilmington took the lead early in the contest, only to have it taken from her a little later. At the end of the first half Washington had the long end of a 12 to 9 score, but by some fast team work, Wilmington won out in the second half.

The score was in doubt until the final whistle, and after that the blue and white had a foul to shoot, which if it had been made would have tied the score. The loss of Dewees and Lewis was keenly felt by Washington, and had they been eligibles to play, the score in Washington's column would have had a somewhat different appearance.

With two regular men out of the line-up, and considering that the three regular men left had never played high school basketball until this year, the work of the blue and white team was super-excellent. Howard Burnett Blue and White right guards, easily outclassed all on both teams. He made two field goals of his own, and was instrumental in making nearly every point that Washington won, also in the prevention of nearly every one that Wilmington did not get.

Boots, the Washington center, was handicapped by a bad fall early in the game, which left him in a partially dazed condition, but he gamely stuck out the game. Willis, who held down the position of right forward, played in extremely hard luck, but at that he made three field goals and one foul goal.

Shepard and Fisher, right forward and center, respectively, on the Wilmington team, were also stars. Shepard garnered four field goals and Fisher four field goals and two fouls.

The line-up for Washington was: Pugsley, H.; Willis, H.; Boots, C.; H. Burnett, H.; and Laughlin, H. The Wilmington line-up was: Shepard, H.; Starbuck, H.; Fisher, C.; Gorman, H.; and Hunnicutt, H. The time keepers were Hall and Engle; the time of quarters was 10 minutes and the referee Myers.

The line-up for the Sophomores was Jocelyn Bowen, H.; Thelma Marchant, H.; Mary Brownell, H.; Opat-Michael and Lorie Robinson, H.; Florence Robinson, first c. and Pauline Taylor second c. The Junior line-up was Mary Reno, H.; Rosalie Slagle, H.; Winifred English, H.; Freda Barger, H.; Helen Baker, first c.; Naomi Murphy and Helen Connor, second c. The referee was Miss Purdue.

JUNIORS WIN.

The Sophomore girls in the preliminary inter-class game, in a very dainty and lady-like manner presented the Junior girls a 23 to 9 victory on a silver platter. Miss Mary Reno's work for the Junior girls featured the game.

OPEN CIRCLE CLASS.

The Open Circle Class of the Grace M. E. church will meet Monday evening at 7:30 at the home of Helen Teeters, 224 N. Main St. Please bring knitting or scissors and material to snip.
